Dear Ursula K. Le Guin

The Mayan calendar has 20 signs and they follow each other, changing on a daily basis. Your birthday falls on one of the days of the 20-day cycle and this is called the Day Sign. The Day Sign shows your typical attributes. It is also called the Adult Sign. The core of your character begins to shape when you reach puberty around 12-13 years of age, so this sign starts to influence you by this time. Before that, it was mostly your Youth Sign, influencing your life.

When you are 26 years old, until 39 years old, your Day Sign will have the maximum impact on your life. And when you are 52 years old, it is the time of the Mature Sign, to take on the stage.

Your life evolves mostly around what your Day sign offers to you. According to the Mayan Daykeepers, your higher self chooses your Day sign before you are born into this world. You took into consideration your needs for evolving and growing spiritually. Your Day Sign provides you with your life mission, which also brings certain strong and weak aspects of your personality. Naturally, you have no idea about all of these aspects the minute you were born. The purpose of this reading is to hold you a mirror, and remind you about why you came to this life, and why you have chosen this Day Sign, as well as other signs surrounding it. Remember, your Day Sign guides you and reminds you of your spiritual essence and personal mission to help you evolve.

Complementarily, your Galactic Tone and the Trecana Sign also shape how your Day Sign is. There are 13 different combinations of your Day Sign and the Tone you were born tells you, which one you have. Additionally, this Tone determines during which Trecana (Mayan "week" of 13 days) you were born. Your Trecana Sign also has an impact on your Day Sign. It is like the background of your character, influencing about 20-30% of it. Your Day Sign, however, is like the foreground and influencing 70-80% of your character.

Core Sign

Your Day Sign - Night

Akbal (Yucatan) / Aq'ab'al (Kiche)

Personality: Strong, logical, tidy, deep, thoughtful and conservative. Durable, introspective

The Night is the sign of mystery, journey into the unknown and revelation of the true self. Since the expression of the Night naturally reminds us of its opposite, the Day, this sign also is a sign of duality and extremes. Sometimes nothing seems to be happening in your life, and at other times you feel overwhelmed because everything is happening at the same time. You like to live life on the edge.

You get along well with young people and children. It is almost true that you stay young forever. You enjoy following the development of new technologies. Whatever tools, devices, trends are flourishing in the contemporary culture, you would like to follow and use them and stay always updated. You have a flexible and strong mind. You tend to dominate situations. You choose to dress in a way that projects your inner strength. Your energy and physical appearance make you very attractive.

Another name for this sign is the House, which makes you almost obsessed with the feeling of security. In one of the Mayan legends, the Hero Twins go on a journey to search for enlightenment. Just about the time when the night falls, they find an empty house. Since they are on a demanding journey, they decide to sleep in this house. When they wake up in the morning, they feel an expansion of their awareness. Sleeping in this house, gave them a certain awakening and they continue their journey in a more enlightened state. The Night or the House symbolically tells us that the Twins found a sense of security in the unknown that led them to a higher consciousness. Like these twins, you are bound to lead an extraordinary sign due to your nature of searching for the unknown, diving into mysticism. It is totally a right feeling for you to feel at home, feel secure. Sometimes this can show up in your attitude to decorate your house in the most beautiful way possible. Life at home and family is very important for you.

However, on the negative side, you might tend to be stuck with the feeling of security too much in a material way. Or getting stuck with the comfort zones and do not dare to take the risks. Actually, this is the biggest pitfall for a Night sign person. To look for security in the materialistic plane, instead of looking for it on the spiritual plane; your true "Home". This might even put you in a state of paranoia where you worry too much about survival and financial security. If you are a Night person and you experience theft or burglary, this might be a clear sign that you were looking for the security in the wrong place. Maybe now it is the time to find your real Home. Your inner voice has always been telling you to go on this journey of a lifetime. Go and explore the darkness, explore the unknown. Allow yourself to go within, into the void in you and never let your curiosity stop for discovering. Remember, the wisdom and power are given to you to accomplish this spiritual journey. Whatever you need is also within you, maybe just waiting to be explored. And in the end, you find the true feeling of security, which cannot be taken away from you.

Night is also a very romantic sign, as seen by the Mayas. In their social life Night is perceived as being very flirtatious. Love can be the biggest obstacle which you stumble upon. You are a charming and passionate lover and you have a tendency to look for a perfect partner. Your desire to seek the "perfect" partner can become an obsession and this may prevent you from seeing the right soul mate for you. Or, you can easily fall for the wrong person if you don't make a serious effort to find "the" partner to be settled with. As a remedy, you need to keep moving on your spiritual path... When you find confidence in yourself, you will naturally make better choices. This is how you will be able to evaluate the wonderful opportunities knocking on your door and pick the right ones for yourself. Beware of your weaknesses, avoid arrogance and always be honest with yourself to achieve success.

Night is known as having the perfect balance of the wisdom of the "Feminine" (Yin) and "Masculine" (Yang). You are extremely artistic, intuitive and can develop your psychic abilities. You have the potential to be a good Shaman, a holistic healer or a poet. The journey into the dark unknown territories, naturally bring you a lot of inspiration and original ways to express yourself.

You have a benevolent, charming and respected character. You like to start everyday with new hopes. Be aware of innovations and opportunities brought by each new dawn. You are a glimmer of hope for yourself and other people. The Mayans call you the "bringer of dawn" or "a dreamer that brings the new sun by clearing the path of life". Your life purpose is to find the light in the darkness and share it with humanity. You must get rid of all doubt, insecurity and fears that are formed by the darkness or your sub-conscious. Increasing your awareness will help you to release what is false, giving you the opportunity to see through all illusions. During this cleansing and clearing time, it is important to pay attention to the messages and signs. You may receive guidance through your dreams that will bring you peace and happiness.

Challange: Mental rigidity and problems with sharing.

Remedy: To build Systems and search for the basis of everything.

Power Places: Mountains, Pyramids, Caves,

Anatomical correspondence: Stomach

Botanical correspondence: cinnamon

Appropriate professions: Doctor, physiotherapist, writer, artist, mathematician

Celebrities born on this day: Joseph Campbell, Jack Kerouac, Kevin Costner, Walt Whitman, Donald Trump, Dave Brubeck, Jack Nicholson, Ursula Le Guin, Uma Thurman, Jean Claude Van Damme, Bruce Willis, Martin Sheen, T.E. Lawrence

Signs you get along with: Night, Cane, Knife and Rabbit

Signs that contribute to your growth: Night, Monkey, Eagle, Storm and Deer.

8

Your Galactic Tone - 8

From simplicity to eternity, the 8 energy organizes everything that exists. You have strong organizational skills and you weigh all possibilities with clarity before you reach the balance point. One of your strengths is being aware of basic patterns that emerge in life. You are born with a curiosity to understand patterns and systems that underlie the world around us. This makes you quite an intellectual type. You like going deep and wide in any subject you are studying. Sometimes this will bring about the need to spend a copious amount of time, for learning something that seemed quite simple in the beginning. Or you might find your self-obsessed with detailed information. In other times, you might be too rigid, or way too organized. Tone 8 brings the right amount of stability and balance in your life, nevertheless, sometimes it is good to let go and spice up your evolution with the presence of other tones. The main intention you have is to bring balance and harmony into your life. Understanding the patterns and the systems, you can easily weight where the balance is lost, what needs to be adjusted in order to bring the harmony back.

Your Trecana Sign - Owl

Cib (Yucatan) / Ajmaq (Kiche)

Owl symbolizes wisdom, and especially the wisdom of the old ones. Mayans say that persons born on the day of the Owl are old souls, reincarnated many times to this life. Old spirits carry the wisdom of the ancient times. The energy of the Owl puts you in touch with the other worlds and brings telepathic abilities that keep you connected to the wisdom of sacred places. Naturally so much experience brings about a wisdom, as well as a heavy karmic load, which I will explain in a minute.

As an old soul, you wish the best for yourself and people close to you but you would like to eliminate the people that do not fit your high standards. Because of your teacher like characteristics, you tend to look for position and authority in society. Old souls are usually attributed to the positions of respect, naturally. You know who you are when in the company of other people. You might have well discovered that you have an incredible inner strength that gives you space for quiet, internal observation. This trait brings you wisdom, which is considered much more valuable than any archaeological treasure. Actually, to be able to remember this wisdom, you may take an interest in ancient cultures and their spirituality. You will feel at home, when you are in around an ancient temple, archeological sites or places known to be old centers of energy, of force. Or reading about and practicing ancient esoteric traditions will empower you in a way, which might even surprise you. In short, you have a fast and easy connection with an ancient spiritual tradition of our planet, whether it is from India, Tibet, Middle East, Mesoamerica or Northern Europe.

These are the resources which will feed you with wisdom and force, however, this sign has drawbacks, as all other signs do. Mayans believe that the Owl people come to this life to purify and burn a lot of karma from past lives. Which makes this lifetime definitely hard to live for them. This is perhaps the utmost important point of awareness for you, about this sign, especially in negative times. Awareness, instead of pessimism, is your way out. I will try to exhibit exactly, what kind of awareness you need. Put simply, when you are in hard times, you are actually burning some karma from your past. So be happy, celebrate that you are cleaning this stuff. And the more aware and centered you are, the more you are surrendered, the more effective (and probably easier) will be this cleaning process.

When you lack balance in your life, you may become numb towards life and be harsh in your relationships. People who love you may be complaining about your rigidity, your hard shell. At such a point, it is important that you forgive yourself. When you are connected to your higher self, the temporary depression that may occur brings valuable lessons. After this experience, you develop a new perspective on life, a more opened spiritual heart and compassion.

You are lazy but wise like the Owl. Even though you may lead an irresponsible life, you sail towards wealth with luck. It is possible that you will live a long and healthy life. Your sharp awareness of difficulties in life and of what works and what does not makes you an excellent guide. The Bee is one of the animals that symbolize this sign. Just like a bee tastes honey, you like to taste the pleasures of life. However, if the Bee gets caught up in pleasuring itself too much, it can fall into the honey and drown. In other words, you need to be aware that you have a tendency for bad habits. When you complete your life lessons and tests, you can become an excellent counselor who helps people to heal from bad habits and addictions.

As I have mentioned before, the Mayans consider the people born on the day of the Owl, to be old souls that have come to this world to clean their karmas. The Owl sign symbolizes a typical karmic cleansing, which means that you are here to cleanse your personal karma and partly the karma of the collective. When you look at your serious and deep outlook at life, you will see how evident it is that you are an old soul as an Owl. You may have had many difficulties, setbacks, and illnesses in your life. In such cases, forgiving and trusting your inner voice will play a critical role in overcoming obstacles. Trusting in yourself, whether you feel very vulnerable, depressive, sad, inadequate or unlucky, will be the key to come out of the dark many times in your life. So trust yourself, no matter what. Listen to that inner voice of wisdom, which speaks to you all the time. And again, be happy that you are able to pay your karmic debts when these problems surface.

Four Directions

Your Tree of Life Signs

According to the Mayans, there is a direct relationship between human beings and the universe. They believe that in the source of the universe, there is a living tree expanding into four directions. This tree manifests in the universal dimensions and is holographically existing on the human level as well. We all have a four-directional tree of life, giving us four more signs in four different directions: The Female sign, the Male sign, the Youth Sign and the Mature Sign. We discover which signs you have in each direction by using your birth date.

We all have many aspects to ourselves. Due to these differences between the signs on your four directions, there can be some tensions and contradictions in your life. The Mayan astrology gives you an important perspective by allowing you to know different directions within you. I strongly recommend you to try to comprehend and observe these different aspects of your being. It will increase your chances for finding the inner balance and find a way to your integrity. Do not focus or get stuck only on the contrasts, try to see how these signs complement each other to your benefit.

Four Directions and Their Meanings

The Youth Sign and the Mature Sign have a major role in your spiritual growth. Together with your Day Sign, they make up the central column of the Tree of Life. They dominate different eras of your life, as can be seen in their names. Therefore, their influences on your character somehow timeless. Your Youth sign is always a support for you and your Mature sign is always a guide in your spiritual evolution.

Nevertheless, there are periods in your life, in which the dominance of these signs change place. You may see it like there is a main stage, and one of these signs is there during its ruling period and slowly there is a transition of roles and the next signs takes on the stage of your life.

Your childhood has been under the dominance of the Youth Sign until about 13 years of age, which is preceded by a transition of 13 years where its influence slowly decreases and you go under the influence of the Day Sign (or the Adult Sign). However, the Youth Sign is still a force that is supporting you. The more you understand your Youth sign and cooperate with it, the more it will support you. But, if you reject it and refuse to understand it, the darker side may come forward and this situation can block you or hold you back from growing spiritually. Once its qualities are familiar to you, it will be your trusted ally which you can turn your back on.

The time between you are 26 years old to 39 years old, your Adult Sign dominates your character. 39 to 52 years old is another period of transition, where the Adult Sign slowly leaves the stage for the coming Mature Sign. Once you are 52 years old the Mature Sign takes on the stage, this age is also called by the Mayas, a time of spiritual rebirth. In this way, you are given a new mission in your life.

However, you may feel the effect at an earlier age, especially if the tone of the Mature Sign is 8 or higher. The Mature Sign is like a guide standing in front of you, showing the way to your spiritual evolution. You are not very familiar with this direction but as time passes by, it will reveal itself more and more to you. The better you understand this sign, the better it will guide you and be a tremendous resource for you to understand your destiny and realize it.

Your Youth Sign - Eagle

Men (Yucatan) / Tz'ikin (Kiche)

Personality: Independent, ambitious and runs away from reality. Skilled in scientific and technical subjects, critical and meticulous. Have unique ideas about life.

The main quality of the natives of this sign is about rising above the difficulties and seeing the big picture. Just like an Eagle flying high, you see everything from afar, from a wide perspective, with sharp intelligence and intuition. As someone born on the day of the Eagle, you have very clear awareness and know what is going on, almost to the extent that nothing can be hidden from you.

You are a natural born visionary and you like to inspire people around you with the visions you have. The little details people see springs you into action and you have a mission to help others to gain a good vision too. You do not appreciate getting stuck in details, although you are aware that they are part of the big picture too. If you have problems with your eyesight, or you are using spectacles, this might be sign that this aspect of the Eagle is blocked within you.

The Eagle is the symbol of spiritual wisdom, to know from within. Your ability to listen to your inner voice makes you a natural oracle and brings you spiritual power. Intuition is one of your key talents. There is always something to learn at every step of the life. You find the power of the inner-knowing with the Eagle and this may make you very telepathic. Solutions to your problems are coming so easily that sometimes even you wonder where they came from. These abilities will bring spiritual and material wealth to you as well as the opportunity to become a powerful cleric or a spiritual leader.

Eagle is an intermediary between the earth and sky. You are strong in the material world as much as in the spiritual world. You know how to get what you want, thanks to your strong spirit and high motivation. There is a passion in your heart for being successful in society; which prepares the fertile soil for becoming a good businessman or merchant. The Mayans say that the Eagle person will have good luck and fortune for material things. The money needed will always come to you.

The Eagle sign means wholeness, completion and it symbolizes striving for perfection on all levels of existence. Therefore, you dedicate yourself to perfection. To reach the top you must stay centered and in balance. If you get caught in too much competition, be possessive, greedy, jealous and ambitious, you will fall from the heights. But if you are thoughtful, generous and compassionate towards others, you will fly high in success. To serve others in compassion ensures your happiness; the flying Eagle creates a life for other birds as well.

We can also say that you are lucky in love and like to live in intense relationships. It will be advisable for you to marry when you reach a mature age because you can be described as a "free spirit" who loves to party. Loyalty is an important and challenging lesson for you to get. Since you have the freedom to move around easily, you also have the potential to run away from reality when you face a challenge. You will open up your large wings and simply fly away from the situation. Fear is your weakness. Instead of running away from your problems you should use your visionary power as a wise Eagle to change your perspective. Looking at the problems from a different angle and taking new approaches will help you to find good solutions and results.

Challenge: To accept the unusual relationship patterns

Remedy: Knowing human nature.

Power Places: Mountains, Volcanoes, forests

Signs that contribute to your growth: : Eagle, Monkey, Storm, Night and Deer.

13 Your Youth Tone - 13

Ascension

- * Bridge
- * Pure creative energy
- * Ascension
- * Spark of understanding
- * Connection to source
- * Remembering

Here we are at the final stage of evolution, the completion of all things. Tone 13 represents equality among all members of the group. You have the sense of collective consciousness, strongly believing in unity and equality among humanity. You are holding the space for other minds to merge until there is no other left out. Tone 13 is also called the "cosmic glue" and is considered the foundation of the other 12 tones. You bring together all the 12 pieces of the puzzle, into One, which brings the possibility of the next stage of evolution Ascension. This is just like the connection between Jesus and his 12 disciples.

Your nature is tolerant and sophisticated. You have an unlimited motivation to overcome your obstacles and transform yourself. Your will to grow and evolve is strong. Reaching the top of the mountain does not mean the journey will end here. As you reach the summit you want to explore and climb another mountain that you may have seen at the new viewpoint reached. The energy of Tone 13 makes you want to try new things and you will be hungry to try more. You provide the energy to connect what has happened in the past and what will ever be. You are a bridge to the "NOW" that will be coming... You take the responsibility to thrive and reach success without giving up. For this reason, you always evolve and reach your goals in life.

The frequency of 13 represents divinity. It watches, loves and gives permission. It is worth the effort to connect with the energy of 13.

Your Mature Sign - Monkey

Chuen (Yucatan) / B'atz (Kiche)

Personality: Attractive, artistic, clever and demonstrative with feelings. Have many interests, talkative and very curious

Cute, clever and generous. It is impossible not to notice you in the community. Even though you wish to hide at times, that is not possible. You have a strong character and you sometimes choose to stay distant from people because of intense emotions. You become the center of attention with the speed of light due to your charming character and jokes. Monkey is a natural born artist and artisan. Music, painting, handmade art objects are all at the expertise of Monkey, however, he is at his best while performing. Dancing, singing, especially acting is a natural talent for Monkey. You will always be under the spotlight and enjoy being the center of attention. If you have not discovered these aspects in you yet, you should definitely consider it. And why not a career in this direction. You can even consider being a TV host. You will naturally draw fame into your life.

In the most simple way, the Monkey symbolizes the child within us. Innocent, curious, creative, playful and funny. This is the child which paints the walls of the house or play the violin in a new and creative way or anything artistic and creative in his/her free will. We know from common sense and social experience that, to look after such a child is challenging, and maybe even exhausting at times. Therefore we usually do not provide enough room for this child. Many parents choose the path of oppression and rebuke. As a reaction, the child often times gets lazy, destructive and disruptive. Mostly this has a high price to be paid, emotional problems and disharmonious family life.

The situation is a little different here. We are talking about your own inner child. You always have the authority, whether you can give space and support her or him. Winner or loser will be yourself, based on your own decisions and actions. And if you are a parent, this will have positive impacts on your children too. As you are born on the day of the Monkey Sign, you should give permission to your inner child for play and creative expression. When your creative channel is open, you can be very beneficial to self and community with your practical mind. The key is keeping the dialogue with your inner child, alive. The extraordinary, artistic, curious aspect in us, the child who is buzzing with energy, needs to live on. As an adult, our task is to protect this child, and in return, we receive the nourishment of inspiration. So remember your childlike dreams, unleash your creativity and free your expressivity. Buy that piano or painting equipment for your inner child.

I am not talking about completely letting go of the adult in you, and become a child again. The beauty of being an adult is, we can have both and have a balanced life based on the two. The movie The Kid, of Bruce Willis, is an iconic representation of this relationship. If you want to go deeper in this direction, I would recommend a certain therapy called primal, which is mainly about purifying the negative conditioning we were exposed at the childhood.

Once you set free your inner child, there could be some challenges coming up in your social life. For instance, people may find it difficult adjusting to your endless questions and innocent curiosity. Since you are friendly and charming, you are very loved by people, which help them to tolerate your childlike being. However, try to be aware that your attention seeking and jokester side. Otherwise, you can be perceived as a clown instead of a charming, funny person.

Monkey is one of the luckiest signs and has good luck with marriage, children, money, career etc. There is a net that connects all signs; a bond connecting everything through human creativity and spiritual unity. This net symbolizes the Monkey sign. The Mayan elders say that the marriages and relationships that start at this day will have a strong, lasting bond. You may be in the search for a perfect life partner. This can be frustrating but when you believe that you have found your partner, you do your best to protect and maintain this relationship. The Monkey is also known as the Weaver. You have the ability to handle thoughts as if they were threads, and weave them into our reality. New thoughts and discoveries are also weaved into our lives by you. There is no need to teach you anything because you already know it. Since you are the sign that connects all other signs, you can benefit from all of their attributes. This gives you the ability to be flexible and knowledgeable about a variety of subjects, which you can use to express yourself artistically and creatively, bringing solutions to matters. However, your attention span is quite short and you do not stay on one subject long enough to master it. One way you can benefit from the skills and knowledge you collect is to use that information to be an inventor of new approaches or to create new ideas. Also consider mastering at least one of the skills you gathered, so that you can relax about your financial situation and have time energy to spread to your multitude of interests.

As a natural leader, you strictly choose leadership or independence; and nothing in between. However, artists are known to have issues with the ego. Be aware that you tend to ignore others when you immerse yourself in your affairs, creativity, and luck. Your dark side is your selfishness and of course one of your life lessons is to overcome this. As time goes by you will understand the importance of service to your community, and you will find your balance.

Challenge: Not staying focused long enough to learn and be good on one subject

Remedy: Being creative

Power Places: Outdoors near lakes, in forests

Anatomical correspondence: Veins

Botanical correspondence: Carnation

Appropriate professions: artist, dancer, midwife, physiotherapist, therapist, matchmaker, obstetrician / gynecologist, ecologist.

Celebrities born on this day: David Bowie, Stanley Kubrick, Akira Kurosawa, Robert De Niro, Barbara Streisand, Ronald Reagan, Jacques Cousteau, Dustin Hoffman

Signs you get along with: Monkey, Owl, Crocodile and Death

Signs that contribute to your growth: Monkey, Eagle, Storm, Night and the Deer

Your Mature Tone - 3

Action

* Playfulness

* Active

* Joyful

* Weightlessness

* Happiness

Tone 3 represents movement and communication. You are very successful in expressing yourself. Your presence brings about more communication, more expression, more action and stirring up of things. Feeling the core of vibrations make you a rhythmic being in our universe. Due to your personality, you are a very cheerful, active, light filled and vivacious person. Dance is a great way to express yourself. Some of the best dancers I have seen were born on Tone 3.

By using your intuitive abilities, you can foresee each step and the next. The energy that you carry brings light to darkness, heals souls, and carries the balance and a right perspective to the world. As a note of awareness, you may have a tendency of ignoring some problems or challenges of life. Trying to accept reality as it is, will make you a more fulfilled person.

Male and Female Signs

Inside every human being, there is a male and a female dimension. According to Taoism, they are defined as Yin and Yang aspects within oneself. Carl Gustav Jung identifies them as Anima and Animus. You should see these two as a support to your Day (Adult) Sign. The Female Sign is your introvert side; Yin, passive side that does not come show off very often. It becomes apparent during intimate relationships and family life at home. The Male Sign is your Yang, outgoing and active side. It becomes apparent during your professional relationships and those involving power struggles. It is your aspect which shows off to the world, which also affects your career life.

The Male and Female signs are like a married couple within you. If this couple fights a lot, your being will be in many conflicts; but if this couple gets along well, peace and success will prevail. It is important to see how these two signs complete each others' contradictions and missing parts, eventually forming a unity.

Your Male Sign - Earth

Caban (Yucatan) / Noj' (Kiche)

For the Mayas, the Earth sign represents everything about the brain and its powers. So it is not so much like the earth element in classical astrology. Earth people have strong and active brains. Intellect, intelligence, strong analytical skills, mental powers, and bright new ideas are all contents of the Earth sign. As a native of this sign, you like to be an eternal student. I would say that your outlook at the entire life is like the one of a scientist, or of a philosopher, or both.

Another name for this sign is “Earthquake”. To think of the Earth sign, we can talk about earthquakes in the sense of the mental world or the philosophical world. In the world of ideas, you have a tendency to create some earthquakes and so the collective consciousness becomes ready and evolves towards a new level. Your views are generally liberal, progressive and sometimes radical. It seems like you live in the future with your thoughts. The energy you carry can bring the world to the next level during the spiritual transformation. You like to be a pioneer for the change! Your mission in this lifetime is to carry the consciousness of humanity to the next level. You literally bring the future thinking into today's world, through your “Earthquakes”. Of course, these movements of mental tectonic planes, will not always be smooth. So you might very often find your self in situations, of conflict, or even sometimes loneliness and despair. Even if you feel lonely, and that nobody around you is understanding of you, you should keep thinking your progressive ideas. One day, or at one opportunity, they will fall into just right place, and you will feel blessed.

If the people around you or society, in general, do not understand your thoughts, ideas, and mentality, you might create tremors of frustration. The Earthquake people in these situations create thought tremors and shake the world to make way for new mentalities. When you lose your balance, you can exhibit extreme emotions or “emotional earthquakes” so to speak.

You may be an inspiring philosopher and a visionary, or a debater or someone with a confused mind. It is not easy to tell whether the brand new ideas coming out of your highly intelligent brain would benefit the world, or just become another false dream. You need to learn how to calm down for avoiding the self-harming earthquakes by balancing your excessive mental activity. Meditation is great medicine for you. In order to create balance and calmness with your spirit, body, and mind, you can also go into dancing, tai-chi or yoga. Moving your body in a meditative way will help you a lot. Also, the so-called active meditations might be very beneficial, to create pauses and gaps in your thinking. I highly recommend methods like journaling or note taking, to be able to empty out your brain and empty the load of your ideas. Being too mental can minimize your connection to nature and this is one of your biggest challenges that you must overcome. Re-establishing and protecting your connection with nature is essential for you.

You prefer to be a calm Earth in your relationships. You have a tendency to be loyal and compromising and you have good manners in a marriage situation.

Your Male Tone - 2

The 2 tone is very mysterious. You feel separate yet you desire to unite with all. You are learning to walk with balance on your journey while you are making decisions about your life; balancing the duality such as light/darkness, masculine/feminine, good/bad, Ying/Yang.

Your Female Sign - Water

Muluc (Yucatan) / Toj (Kiche)

Your soft natured, humble, emotional and hardworking characteristics make you noticeable. You are a dynamic, intelligent and excellent communicator and these features make you effective in leadership positions. You certainly are not an average person. You are a risk taker and have a strong imagination. Your artistic, visionary and creative skills are worth noticing. You are able to find your balance like the water finds its way.

Water is an element which is believed to bring purification and in certain Mayan rituals, people pray for the harmonization and purification of their society, the community they are living in. These rites are an essential part of their life so that people can live in a united collective power and harmony. The sign of Water is essentially seen as having the same purpose as the water in these ceremonies. As a Water person, you are here to bring harmony and purification to the collective life. Deep down, the purpose of this sign is to bring peace, purification, and harmony. Fulfilling this difficult task may seem like one is condemned to an unfortunate destiny. Sometimes this is because you may take other peoples' negativity upon you. Remember you are a sacrifice yourself, your soul's purpose is to purify the collective karma of your society. If reading this, thoughts like “why I am in such an unfair situation” might come to your mind. Denial, irritation, anger or despair are some of the ways you can react to this information. However, If you can stay with me and try to understand the dynamics of Water, you may really come out of the dark tunnel soon and find real balance in your life.

First of all, remember that the one who gives back is the one who surrenders, the one who is humble. This sign has a huge influence on your psychology about the awareness of the ego. You might be well known in your community for your sacrifice and devotion, and maybe all of this sounds bitter, but spiritually you are really fortunate.

You might be experiencing, depression, serious health issues, various problems, pessimism or setbacks in your life. Try to see every challenge as an opportunity to grow. If you are willing to face your challenges and overcome them, a successful life will be waiting for you. The more you clean your Karma, the more life will take a turn towards the better. Your sense of gratitude and will to surrender will be your savior and it will guide you to continue your life as a wise person. Mayan say that Water people will learn how to flow better in the difficult turns and curves of life. Over time, they will be excellent human beings, flowing with life in its fullest. Using your intuition for navigating the difficult paths of life will surely increase your mental capabilities to the fullest.

Obviously, you are an emotional and fragile human being. Emotion is a big keyword for you. Sometimes they will overwhelm you and create restricting situations, or negative relationships with people where you the emotional manipulator. But, if you bring the light of awareness to your emotions, you may slowly bring control over them. Remember, when your emotions seem to be out of control, take a quick break, or a deep breath, recollect and center yourself. If you can control your emotions well, you will realize that you have an excellent EQ (Emotional intelligence). Using your EQ skills to help and heal others, instead of using it to manipulate them, will also reveal the leader within you. In today's management world, it is a well-known fact that people with high EQ can communicate better, therefore stay in leadership positions for long periods.

On top of everything, I have to tell you about your powerful artistic talents. Especially at the visual fields of art, you can create wonders, whether it is painting, photography or filmmaking. Trust your strong imagination and express your visual skills.

You like to have passionate and intense relationships but you must be careful not to be too overwhelming and jealous. To live a healthy and balanced relationship, you must find your way and balance like the water.

The essence of this sign is gratitude, giving back, donating and giving offerings. You must remember this and remind humanity as well. Everything we own is borrowed. It is advised that you give offerings once in every twenty days, on the Water sign days. You are a natural spiritual guide and a bright light for humanity; your prayers are always accepted. You like helping people in your community and by helping others you are helping yourself.

Your Female Tone - 1

Tone 1 represents the stage of creation before duality. You like to create because 1 is the tone of creation. You take action quickly and possess great power. You are confident and you like moving forward in life. You demonstrate successful performance when you come across an obstacle. Challenges bring out the best of you. You have a capacity to know who you are in a deep sense, and you are capable of guiding yourself. You have a tendency to start many projects, but you are maybe not so good at completing them since you may get lost in details. You should not hesitate to ask for help for cooperation. Keeping your creative channels widely open will help you to hear your inner voice.

Synthesis

The sign of Water has a purifying role in the private life of the Night. This might bring experiences of setbacks and difficulties in their family lives or intimate relationships. Actually, Water is also responsible, if you had a difficult social life or school life when you were a kid and a teenager. On the positive tone, the union of Water and Night provides guidance through dreams and vision.

The Earth sign has a special dignity, stability and deep thoughtfulness about it. Earth brings about good study skills and expertise in the chosen fields. Life offers financial opportunities to provide happiness for the Night during middle ages. Since the Female sign is the emotional Water and the Male sign is the mental Earth, you will have a well-balanced masculine and feminine energy, especially between your 26 to 39 years of age. During these years, and probably still until 52 years old, any excessive emotions could be balanced with the Earth sign and any excessive mental activity could be balanced with the Water sign.

The Youth sign Eagle, provides good luck, fortune and protection. Eagle energy will support with the previously developed abilities (intuition, dreams, prediction and telepathy), so that it will be easy to find the right path that leads to the spiritual home.

It is great fun for the Night to receive guidance from the Mature sign Monkey, who is famous for its practical intelligence and creativity. The Night loves to be mysterious but may wish to be more extrovert and in the spotlight, thanks to the influence of the Monkey. Learning some form of art is also a great idea.

You are your own architect, but your development can easily halt or slow down. This composition of this tree of life, tells you that the whole world is under your feet. If you use them in the right way, none of the seemingly “negative” signs can stop you.
